THURSDAY, MAY 26, 1898

If it is to be a foot race Sampson is licked now, but if it is to be a fight old man Cervera may as well pick out a nice moist berth in the bed of the ocean at once.

If the weather does not fail them the crowd of visitors at Buckeye Park today will be numbered into the thousands. There is no more beautiful spot for a day's outing in all the Ohio Valley.

Burglary at Watertown.

Wednesday morning bright and early the Watertown Postmaster, Mr.
 Ezekiah Fisher, was surprised upon going into his office to find that some one had been there before him, and had taken in stamps and cash about fifty dollars. Mr. Fisher had in the store considerable small change, and this also was taken. A portion of the same, some coppers wrapped in a paper, was found in the road some little distance from the scene of the robbery.

Not only was the post office entered, but the store belonging to J. T. Dunbar, of the same village, was broken into. Mr. Dunbar could not say yesterday what was missing. No money had been taken, for none was left in the store, but it is possible that some goods might have been appropriated by those who took the trouble to force an entrance into the store.

Elked It For His Mother's Sake.

A few days since a preacher of the Gospel visited Elk Fork, W. Va., noted for its oil, and a few incidental gamblers. The good man concluded he would stay in the place for a season and see if he could institute a reform among the fellows of the green cloth.
 He could get no church building in which to preach, so he spoke from a goods box on a corner. One of the "beyond redemption" fellows heard him several times and later saw the preacher, and told him that he had rented quarters for his occupancy because he talked "kinder like his mother used to," and that although he did not practice what the minister preached, he liked to hear the Gospel for his mother's sake.

Charged With Murder.

PAKERSBURG, W. VA., May 24.— Twenty-year-old Mattie Gooden was indicted for murder by the criminal grand jury today, charged with throwing her babe into a cesspool, causing its death.

The woman at this time is at the point of death, due to the excitement which she has been going through, and her recovery is thought to be impossible.

Considerable sympathy has been expressed for the woman as on account of her youth and ignorance she is hardly accountable for her grave act.

Wallace Wynn.

Mr. Wallace Wynn, a young man about 20 years of age, died Tuesday morning at his home on Fourth street, after a long illness of a complication of diseases. The funeral will be held at the residence on Fourth street at ten o'clock this morning. Interment will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

He May Be Both.

There seems to be some confusion about the pronunciation of Commodore Schlegel's name. On general principles, judging from his profession, it is called Slay. If, however, he succeeds in catching the elusive Cervera and his squadron, there will be a popular tendency to pronounce it Sly.

Zanesville's Ball Club.

It has been definitely decided that Zanesville is to be one of the cities in the Ohio State Baseball League. The property of the last year's club has been sold to a new management. Mr.
 C. E. Jewell, of Bellaire, will be the manager of the team.

Pleaded Guilty.

In Mayor's court Tuesday morning Jesse Wallace pleaded guilty to the charge of keeping the gambling room over Richard Kerr's saloon on Front street and was fined $25 and costs.

 ble plague of the night, itching piles.

 West India and Panama Cable Co. denies that the cable lines from Santiago de Cuba to San Juan de Porto Rico and Ponce have been cut. The company adds that messages for Porto Rico will be received.

SHAVES SPANISH PRISONERS.

Barber at Fort McPherson, Ga., Pays the Captives a Professional Visit.

The Spanish prisoners of war confined at Fort McPherson, near Atlanta, Ga., are congratulating themselves over their improved appearance. The other morning the post barber paid them a visit and devoted two hours to the personal embellishment of the dons, after which they appeared to drop the desolate air they have been exhibiting lately and to have found some diversion in their monotonous existence. This programme was carried out only after consultation on the part of the post authorities. The melancholy manner in which the prisoners have acted incline their custodians to fear that it might be dangerous to trust them with razors.

A barber's chair was rigged up in one of the unoccupied rooms of the guardhouse, and those about to be operated on were notified. With all but Cortijo, the relative of Weyler, the news aroused feelings of curious interest, but the colonel seemed to think that some new assault on his dignity was in progress, and when two lieutenants gently grasped his arms and tried to lead him to the chair, he hung back and scowled.

After some persuasion he was induced to seat himself, and within a few minutes his face was entirely hidden by lather and the barber had begun to separate the officer and his stubble growth of many days. Even then the don did not appear wholly reconciled, and kept rolling his eyes, twitching his mouth and hoarsely grunting his disapproval of the entire affair. He "tipped" the barber at the conclusion of his shave, and retired moodily to his cell.

GETS FAMOUS ASTRONOMER.

University of Chicago Secures Dr.
 Edwin Brant Frost from Dartmouth College.

Dr. Edwin Brant Frost, of Dartmouth college, will become a member of the faculty of the University of Chicago at the beginning of the next school year.
 Prof. Frost, who is at present professor of astronomy at Dartmouth and director of the Shattuck observatory, will assume the rank of a full professor at the university and will work with the big lens at the Yerkes observatory.

Prof. Frost is a graduate of Dartmouth, and has been an instructor at his alma mater, with the exception of two years spent in study abroad, ever since his graduation in 1886. In 1890 he went abroad, intending to study in Strasbourg, but he had an opportunity to become a volunteer assistant at the imperial astrophysical observatory in Potsdam and so spent two years there assisting Vogel and Schaefer in spectroscopic research work. During his stay these noted men, by their investigations in thermal radiation of sun spots and solar surfaces, placed in doubt the theory that the spots on the sun are cavities in the photosphere.

AN INARTISTIC NOSE.

Son of a Millionaire Bavarian Banker Finds It a Barrier to Marriage and Trice Suicide.

Any man's tongue may cause him no end of trouble, but there is only one case for historians to record by which a human being's woes can be directly traced to his nose.

Charles Aufurth's nasal organ did not suit him and as a result he is lying in Bellevue hospital, New York, suffering from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head.

He is the son of a millionaire Bavarian banker. The first nose that nature gave to Aufurth showed that he had been slighted. It was little better than two nostrils flattened on his face.

He fell in love, but the object of his affections refused to entertain his suit or listen to his accounts of what wealth he could give her.

Young Aufurth came to this country.
 He went to live at 195 East Seventh street, where his acquaintances were more charitable than those in the fatherland.

Aufurth underwent a grating operation, but his voice failed and he could hardly be understood. He decided to go to the war. The recruiting officers could not even understand his name.
 The other night he decided that he would kill himself. He fired a bullet into his head.

 brew, etc.

The Herring as Food.

A medical authority on the virtues of various kinds of foods declares that the herring gives the muscles elasticity, the body strength, and the brain vigor, and is not flesh-forming.

 Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge,
